Donna Elena S.R.L. ...Plaintiff

v/s.

Tata International Ltd. ...Defendant

...

D.H.Law Associates for the Plaintiff.

Mr.Sham Diwan i/b Mulla & Mulla for the Defendant.

...

CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH, J.

DATED: 6TH DECEMBER, 2004

P.C.:

1. This Notice of Motion is taken out by the Plaintiff. The learned Counsel appearing for the Plaintiff states that the learned Judge at the time of considering the prayer for ad-interim order has in the order dated 6th May, 2004 quoted a statement made on behalf of the Defendants in their affidavit dated 31st March, 2004 and has declined to grant any ad-interim order in view of this statement. The learned Counsel submits that if the Defendants are ready to make a statement that they will continue to abide by this statement till the suit is pending, the Plaintiff does not seek any interim order. The learned Counsel appearing for the Defendant states that the Defendants shall continue to abide by the statement made in their affidavit dated 31st March, 2004, which has been quoted by the Court in its order dated 6th May, 2004 during the pendency of the suit. Statement is accepted.

Notice of Motion disposed of.
